Achieving Racial Equity by Changing the Dynamic between Residents and Decision-makers: A look at Culturally Responsive Grant-making Practice and Evaluation

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

11:00am – 1:00pm

Greater Milwaukee Foundation

101 W. Pleasant St., Ste. 210

Milwaukee, WI 53212

Learning Together

What are the best ways to develop authentic partnerships between those who fund and evaluate social change and the people who are most impacted by racial inequity?

Who should define success and how do we accurately measure impact in the context of racial equity programs and initiatives?

What have been resident experiences with projects that are focused on equity, anti-racism, and community engagement?

In what ways should program evaluation operate differently when the goal is racial equity?

The Greater Milwaukee Foundation in partnership with iMilwaukee Evaluation! Inc., the Wisconsin statewide affiliate of the American Evaluation Association, graciously invites you to join us for a recalibrated conversation on culturally responsive grant making practice and evaluation approaches, with an emphasis on understanding structural racism and power in programs seeking to achieve racial equity.

We welcome our discussants, a panel of local and national experts:
Caronina Grimble, Program Officer, Woods Fund, Chicago, IL
Danell Cross, Executive Director, Metcalfe Park Community Bridges
Sharlen Moore, Director, Youth Justice Milwaukee, Urban Underground
Paul Elam, President, Public Policy Associates, Lansing, MI
