Detailed Description of Treasurer Responsibilities

Financial management and/or oversight. Manage the financial affairs of the organization, often such as reconciling bank statements, manage cash flows from PayPal, Wild Apricot (organization website), physical checks. In addition, the development of financial policy for event pricing, membership dues, and sponsorships will be an ongoing process.

Budgets. Responsible for preparing organizational budget with projected yearly costs, as well as regularly monitoring and comparing the actual revenues and expenses incurred against the projected budget. Budget is developed in conjunction with other board members legacy projects and events. As such, an integral understanding of the organization’s goals and objectives is important. The budget will be reviewed by the board, with thorough explanations documented and readily available for each item.

Reports. Preparing reports of the organization’s financial state will occur monthly, to align with the organization’s board meetings. The reports will serve to continuously compare the projected budget with actual revenues and transactions, providing board members with interpretations, trends, and any possible concerns concerning the fiscal health of the organization.

Financial Liaison. Responsible for the completion of financial documents for state and federal processes, such as IRS tax forms, states fees, etc. Constant communication with the organization’s accountant is essential. Customer service skills are also necessary for interacting with the organization’s members, usually around membership dues and registration for special events.

Overall. The Treasurer can be most effective to the board when facilitating and encouraging the board’s strategic thinking about the short- and long-term financial vitality of the organization in relation to the organization’s mission.
