Call for Poster Proposals

2017 Social Justice & Evaluation Conference

¡Milwaukee Evaluation! Inc. is seeking proposals for posters from high school, college, graduate school, technical college students and non-college enrolled youth. All proposals must be submitted by midnight on Monday, February 6th, 2017 via the online form: http://bit.ly/sjec2017poster.

Poster Description

Poster presentations are a newly added opportunity for students during the 2017 Social Justice and Evaluation Conference. Posters may present cases studies, tools, approaches, etc. unique to a research or evaluation project in which a student is engaged. Posters could have been presented at previous conferences. An easel and poster board will be provided for each approved poster.

Submission Instructions

Proposals must be submitted by midnight on Monday, February 6th. Students are encouraged to draft their proposal in a word processing document and paste it into the online form: http://bit.ly/sjec2017poster.

All proposals must include the following information:

- Full contact information for each presenter (name, school/institution, title, city, state, phone, email, race/ethnicity, ). You may have up to three presenters per session.
- Brief biography (up to 400 characters) for each presenter. Please do not submit resumes or CVs.
- Descriptive presentation title (10 words or fewer)
- Short description (up to 1000 characters) of the proposed presentation including the take-home value and impact of the presentation. Why is the session particularly relevant or valuable to conference attendees? You are encouraged to relate your proposal to the conference theme, Social Justice and Evaluation.

If selected, your name, biography, presentation title, and poster description will be made available on the ¡Milwaukee Evaluation! Inc. website. Membership in ¡Milwaukee Evaluation!
Inc. is not required in order to be a presenter, but registration for the conference at the reduced student rate is expected.

Selection Criteria
All proposals will be evaluated by the Social Justice and Evaluation planning committee according to criteria that include:

- Relevance — directly relevant to evaluation and/or social justice.
- Clarity — offers a clear description of the proposed session.
- Innovation — displays innovation or originality.
- Application — participants will be able to learn practical tools or lessons.
- Program balance — the conference planning committee strives to create a balanced set of posters that covers a wide range of topics with diverse presenters.

Timeline
- The Social Justice and Evaluation planning committee will notify all applicants of their application status by Friday, February 10th, 2016, via email.
- Poster presenters must confirm presentation and other material by Friday, February 27th, 2017.

Questions
Contact kwestaby@wisc.edu or visit www.evaluation.wildapricot.org with any questions about the submission process, your proposal, or the conference.